

MASTERING FACILITATION

Facilitate Collaboration: Accelerate organisational effectiveness

When you truly understand organisational complexity, you realise why the pervasive solution provider paradigm is so unreliable, wasteful and risky. If you understand the theory and practice of Systemic Stairway®, you appreciate facilitation as a powerful alternative, and you are ready to make the paradigm shift and achieve facilitation mastery. Your organisation needs this skill.

Managing Collaboration is a prerequisite for the Facilitating Collaboration course. During this course you will deepen and enrich practical skills necessary for facilitating productive collaboration across a wide range of complex organisational challenges.

You will learn the nitty gritty details around workshop design, planning and logistics that will enable you to operate successfully as a facilitation practitioner at all levels in your organization.

Learning Options.

1. In-person training

By special arrangement tailored to your specific individual and/or organisational challenge

2. Self-study

10 x 20-minute videos @R250 each R2 500 ex VAT

In-house

This workshop will equip you to:

1. Understand complexity and learn how to commission complex projects successfully.
2. Appreciate the facilitator paradigm and make paradigm shift through experiential learning.
3. Master action learning as a practical management methodology for “getting things done”.
4. Understand how to adapt Systemic Stairway™ to the unique reality of specific situations.
5. Gain skills in coaching the Systemic Stairway®.
6. Learn practical approaches to facilitating large group strategy sessions.
7. Tailor Systemic Stairway® for your specialised role or profession.
8. Develop a robust facilitation model for managing complexity in your world.
9. Facilitate the creation of high-performance teams at all levels.
10. Learn how to tell interesting and valuable project stories.